Sai Vrat Story:

Kokilaben and her husband Maheshbai used to live in a big city and they had lots of love for each other. But Maheshbai's nature was very annoying and he had no sense of talking. Neighbors were also very much frustrated by his kind of nature. Kokilaben had lots of faith in God and she was very religious. She was tolerating all her problems silently having lots of faith in God that God will make everything alright one day. But because of Maheshbai's nature, their business went down gradually and there was not enough income. He started staying at home all day and his nature becoming worst.

It was an afternoon one old saint came to Kokilaben's door. There was enormous light on his face. And he asked for alms. Kokilaben gave him rice and dal and she folded her hands and did namaskar. Saint replied "Keep Faith and Patience, you will soon come out of all the problems due to sai baba's kripa and you will be happy".Kokilaben said, "There is no happiness in my life" and she told all her problems to the saint.Then,saint told about Sai nav guruvar vrat to kokilaben as follows.

In this kali age (Kaliyug), ths vrat is very effective. This vrat will give desired fruit to doer, but doer must have full faith and patience. Whoever will distribute this "SAI VRAT" book among people and make good the name of SAI and this vrat, then all their wishes will be fulfilled.

After listening about this SAI vrat from saint, Kokilaben also decided to do this vrat. She started vrat from the Thursday. And she finished 8 GURUWARS (Thursdays) with full faith. On the 9th GURUWAR, she fed poor people and distributed SAI vrat books among friends and relatives.

As soon as she finished the vrat, all the quarrels vanished from her house, prosperity , happiness and peace spread in her home. Maheshbai's nature was changed completely. Their business started doing well in a short time and started seeing prosperity. Both husband and wife started living happily. One day, Kokilaben's sister-in-law and her brother came from Surat. Her sister-in-law was talking with Kokilaben. The former said that her kids were not studying and getting failed in exams. Kokilaben told her about "SAI VRAT". She said, SAI devotion will make education better. Have full faith in "SAI BABA". He helps everyone. Kokilaben's sister-in-law asked the details of the vrat.

Kokilaben told about the 'SAI VRAT' in detail. And explained her everything about the vrat. Her sister-law went to Surat and she sent a letter after few days. She wrote that her children have started doing 'SAI VRAT' and now they are studying very well. She also did vrat and distributed "SAI VRAT" book in her office. One of her friends, who had a very hard time in getting married, got married to a very nice man after started doing "SAI VRAT" and she got her stolen jeweler box back. It was a great miracle.

Hey "SAI BABA', as you have blessed these people, please bless all others too.
